Volleyball Team Progresses to Elite Eight

For the first time in Truman history the volleyball team qualified for the NCAA Division II Elite Eight Women's Volleyball Championship.

The No. 2 nationally ranked team's record of 37-2 is the best in school history. Their 16-0 status in the Mid-America Intercollegiate Athletics Association is also a school record, a mark that allowed the team to collect its second straight, but first outright, conference championship.

Cassy Felkerson, senior chemistry major from Salem, Mo., was picked as a first-team All-American. Eliza Hoerner, senior business administration major from Augusta, Mo., was selected for the second team.

Additionally, first-year head coach Qi Wang was named the South Central Region's Coach of the Year and will be considered for national coach of the year recognition.
