Recycling Center Adds Picnic Table

The Truman State University Recycling Center has added a picnic table to the Center. The six foot long picnic table was made from 3,230 plastic milk jugs. The table sits on a pad made from recycled glass and cement.

The Recycling Center recycles mixed office paper, plastic bottles and jugs, magazines, newspapers, cardboard, aluminum cans, hard books, shredded paper, glass and printer cartridges.

For more information about Truman's Recycling Center, contact Howard Worcester at 785.7672.
