Family Day Events Scheduled For Sept. 20

A full schedule of events are planned for this weekend as part of Truman's annual Family Day. The fun begins on Friday evening with the Women's Volleyball match at 7 p.m. Sept. 19 at the Kirksville Primary School located at 1815 East Hamilton Street.

The morning of Sept. 20 will begin with parent seminars at 9 a.m. and 10 a.m. in the Activities Room of the Student Union Building. In the first session, Lou Ann Gilchrist, dean of student affairs, will discuss "The Value of Out-of-Class Experiences." Brian Krylowicz, director of University Counseling Services, will follow at 10 a.m. with his presentation, "Common Psychological Issues of College Students."

Tours of Pickler Memorial Library will take place every 10 minutes from 10 a.m. to noon. Another event starting at 10 a.m. is the Annual Festival Centennial, which runs until 4 p.m. on the Centennial Hall courtyard. It features free food, games, contests and music. At 11 a.m. in Baldwin Auditorium families are invited to hear from President Barbara Dixon and Student Senate President Lizz Esfeld. Franklin Street Singers will also perform.

There will be a break in University-sponsored events until the afternoon, and families are invited to attend the Red Barn Arts and Crafts Festival in downtown Kirksville. This year's event includes the addition of an antiques show, which will take place in the Arts Center at 117 South Franklin Street. University activities will resume at 3 p.m. with Women's Volleyball at the Primary School.

"The Norman Magic Experience," sponsored by the Student Activities Board, will take place at 4 p.m. in Baldwin Auditorium. Admission is $3. Students with a Truman ID get in free. Tickets may be purchased before the show at the ticket window in Baldwin Hall.

A tailgate barbecue is planned from 5-6:30 p.m. in Red Barn Park. Tickets must be purchased in advance. Cost is $8 per person, however, students with a meal plan will not need to pay if they present their Truman IDs. Tickets can be purchased online at <http://store.truman.edu/familyday>. Click on Family Day Barbecue Tickets to purchase. Truman accepts MasterCard, Visa and Discover credit cards. Please bring a blanket or lawn chairs for seating.

The Student Union Building will serve as the location in the event of rain. Student organizations will coordinate face painting and fun kids' games during the barbecue.

At 7 p.m. the Bulldog football team will take on Northwest Missouri State University in the "Ol' Hickory Stick Game." General admission tickets are $7 for adults and $5 for children under 12 and senior citizens. Reserved seating is $8. Admission is free to students with a Truman ID. Tickets may be purchased online at <http://gobulldogs.truman.edu/store/>. For more information contact the Athletics Box Office at 660.785.4235.

Weekend activities will conclude Sept. 21 with a Memory Walk to raise money and awareness for Alzheimer's, and a performance by Cantoria Singers, Wind Symphony Band and University Orchestra Concert. Registration for the Memory Walk, sponsored by Sigma Kappa sorority, will take place at noon, with the Walk beginning at 1 p.m. The musical performance will take place at 2 p.m. in Baldwin Auditorium. For more information visit <http://www.truman.edu/pages/172.asp>.

Attention All Missouri Bright Flight and Access Missouri Recipients

A new Missouri law, HB 1549, effective Aug. 28, 2008, requires public colleges and universities to verify that recipients of state educational funds are lawfully present in the United States. If you have been awarded one of these state programs for the fall semester, you must provide "affirmative proof" of U.S. citizenship, permanent residency or other lawful presence in the U.S. A valid Missouri driver's license is sufficient. If you have completed I-9 clearance for student employment, you have met "affirmative proof" requirements. If you have questions, please contact Kathy Elsea at 785.4130 or e-mail finaid@truman.edu.

INTERNSHIP PROGRAM HOSTS INFORMATIONAL MEETING

An informational meeting about the Missouri Government Internship Program will take place at 5:30 p.m. Sept. 24 in the Student Union Building Georgian Room C. Pizza will be provided.

The Missouri Government Internship Program offers a unique opportunity for students to intern at the Capitol in Jefferson City, Mo., with a public official, legislator or state agency during the spring 2009 semester. The internship, which is open to all majors, provides an inside look at state government.

Joe Van Amburg, a 2007 legislative intern for House Minority Leader Jeff Harris, said that the internship was one of the best experiences he has had since being at Truman.

"Representative Harris and his staff were fun to work with and they taught me a lot about state government and politics, as well as life in general," Van Amburg said. "I learned more about myself that semester than any prior semester at Truman."

The interns live in Jefferson City and receive a stipend of $2,500. Interns may earn up to 15 hours of credit.

All juniors and seniors are encouraged to apply. Applications are available online at http://career.truman.edu/student/internship/mogov_app.pdf. Completed applications should be returned to McClain Hall 101. A selection committee will review the applications and interviews will be conducted in October for the spring 2009 legislative internships.

Interested students can contact Candy Young at 785.4650 or Heidi Templeton at 785.4016 for more information.

Kohlenberg Lyceum Series Presents Capitol Steps

The political music revue, Capitol Steps, will be performing in Baldwin Auditorium at 7:30 p.m. Sept. 22 as the first in the series of Kohlenberg Lyceum events to take place this year. Capitol Steps is a Washington-based ensemble of Congressional staffers turned songwriters. They will perform a musical satire designed to keep the audience laughing about events and personalities on Capitol Hill, in the Oval Office, and other centers of power.

Produced and co-written by Elaine Newport, their performance features 20 "stinging" parodies, including "Wouldn't it be Hillary," "The Impossible Dean," "Cheney and the Jets," "Duke of Oil" and "Kerry Baby."

Since their inception in 1981, the Capitol Steps have recorded 28 albums, including their latest, "Campaign and Suffering." They've been featured on NBC, CBS, ABC and PBS.

Although not all of the current members of the Steps are former Capitol Hill staffers, the performers have collectively worked in a total of 18 Congressional offices and represent 62 years of House and Senate staff experience.

Lyceum tickets are free for all Truman students, faculty and staff. Students may pick up their tickets from 9:30 a.m.-3:30 p.m. Monday through Friday at the Student Activities Board office in the Student Union Building. Faculty and staff may pick up their tickets from 10:30 a.m.-8 p.m. Monday through Friday at the information desk in the Student Union Building.

General admission tickets will be on sale at Edna Campbell's and the Truman State University Business Office, McClain Hall 105, for the costs of $7 for adults and $4 for those 18 and under. For more information go online to <http://lyceum.truman.edu>.

Paino to Speak at Truman Faculty Forum

Truman's new Provost and Vice President of Academic Affairs, Troy Paino, will present "The Importance of Scholarship & Creativity at a Liberal Arts College" at the first Faculty Forum of the year at 7 p.m. Sept. 18 in Violette Hall 1000.

Paino will address the topic of scholarship and creativity by describing the essence of what a liberal arts university is: a moral community.

Paino describes a liberal arts college as a place where students, faculty, staff and administrators are searching for Happiness with a capital 'H,' which is the profound, meaningful and transcendent kind of Happiness experienced by those living in a community where opportunities to express a better self and see the world from a fresh perspective arise every day.

President Barbara Dixon will introduce Paino, and after his presentation a reception with refreshments will take place upstairs in the Violette Hall Commons. For more information about this forum and upcoming forums through spring 2010, please visit <http://forum.truman.edu>.

The Truman Faculty Forum continues to be dedicated to enhancing the importance of scholarship and creative endeavors in our institution and to providing opportunities for us to learn about the exciting work being done on our campus.

Peace Corps Representative Speaks to Students

Truman students will have the opportunity to hear from a representative from the Peace Corps during a video conference at 6 p.m. Sept. 25 at the Career Center.

Clifton Johnson was a volunteer to the Kingdom of Tonga from 2003-2005, and he will be discussing his experiences in the Peace Corps.

Earlier this year Truman was ranked 25th on the Peace Corps' list of medium-sized schools producing volunteers. Since the organizations inception, 154 alumni have joined its ranks. Truman currently has 20 alumni serving as Peace Corps volunteers. The University ranks No. 87 for the number of graduate school alumni participating and is the No. 281 producer of volunteers all-time.

Students who are considering volunteering for the Peace Corps are encouraged to attend. For more information on the video conference contact Polly Matteson at 785.4240 or pollym@truman.edu.

Janet Gooch, department chair, and Amy Little, graduate student and recipient of the 2008 Early Literacy Lab Fellowship, accept a check for more than $1,500 from members of the Scottish Rite. The Scottish Rite sponsored a Bass Fishing Tournament in spring 2008, the proceeds were designated for the Truman Rite Care Early Literacy Lab.

United Way Surpasses 60 Percent of Goal

After the third Week of Truman's United Way campaign, our faculty, staff, students and retirees have contributed more than $34,000, which means we have reached 62 percent of our goal.

Thank you to everyone who has contributed to this effort. If you have not returned your pledge form, there is still time to do so. Also, if you have misplaced your pledge form and are in need of a replacement, contact Brad Chambers in Advancement at bchamber@truman.edu or Debra Kerby, professor of accounting, at dkerby@truman.edu.

Please join together to show that Truman faculty, staff, students and retirees Live United in support of education, income and health.

Former Quiet Lounge Renamed "The Hub"

The new nickname for the Student Union Building lounge is "The Hub."

Twenty-five names were submitted to the Student Union Advisory Committee and were pared down to six. The top six nicknames were then voted upon by students at the open house on Sept. 9.

Libby Piel, a junior biology major from Ballwin, Mo., submitted the winning name. For her effort, Piel will be awarded with $50 to Barnes and Noble provided by the Truman State University Bookstore and the Student Union.

Theatre Department Presents "A Shadow in the Dark"

The Truman Theatre Department's production of "A Shadow in the Dark" will run from Oct. 1-4 in the James G. Severn's Theatre in Ophelia Parrish.

In "A Shadow in the Dark," written by Jared Latore, a senior theatre major from O'Fallon,

Mo., an influential children's author, tormented by forces he will never understand, sows a garden of nightmares and heartaches as he descends into madness, dragging the world down with him. Due to strong language and subject matter, "A Shadow in the Dark" is not appropriate for children.

All tickets must be reserved in advance by calling the box office at 785.4515. The box office is open from 10:30 a.m.-4:30 p.m. Monday through Friday. Shows begin at 8 p.m. and last approximately two and half hours.
