Twenty-Seven Graduates Named Valedictorian

Representatives of the Boeing Company came to campus recently to meet with students who have received Boeing scholarships at Truman.

The Boeing Company provides scholarship opportunities for talented students who are interested in the aerospace industry and who have demonstrated academic performance and leadership. Five scholarships are provided to students majoring in accounting/business administration and five scholarships to students majoring in mathematics and/or computer science.

Students who have received the Boeing scholarship include Lauren Allen, Irene Francisca, Joseph Hainline, Mical Hainline, Naoki Iijima, Oseyi Ikuenobe, Cherno Jallow, Nisha Kaphle, Joseph Kummer, Sravani Mulpuri, Dung Nguyen, Preethi Parmar, Alisha Raby, Anwesh Rijal, Joshua Spiegel, Amanda Taucher, Lisa Tuggle and Dean Verhoef.

The Boeing Company currently employs more than 330 people with ties to Truman.

Carlson Selected as Presser Scholar

Carol Carlson, a music performance and political science double major from Longmont, Colo., has been named a Presser Scholar for the 2004-2005 academic year.

The Presser Scholarship is given to an outstanding music major at the end of his or her junior year. The foundation's grant of $4,000 was awarded to Carlson at the spring Fine Arts award ceremony April 27.

Carlson is a member of the President's String Quartet. Theodore Presser is remembered not only as the publisher of Etude, the music magazine, and the founder of the great music publishing firm bearing his name, but as a philanthropist who specialized in music education.

Truman State University President Barbara Dixon (left) and Bob Jones, head of the fine arts division and professor of art, (right) present Carol Carlson (center) a check for $4,000 from the Presser Foundation.

Boeing Provides Scholarship Opportunities

The Boeing Company employees Chuck Woods (left) and Matthew (Matt) Daniels (right) meet with Truman State University President Barbara Dixon.
The Department of Public Safety will be re-striping most of the parking lots this summer.

During the summer, the Truman Today is a biweekly publication. The next issue will be June 21. Deadline for entries is 5 p.m., the Wednesday preceding Monday’s publication. Entries should be submitted by sending an e-mail to kbest@truman.edu or by completing a Truman Today form available in the Public Relations Office, McClain Hall 101. The form also may be accessed online at http://trumantoday.truman.edu/submissionform.pdf. All submissions are subject to editing for clarity, style and space.